and Table of Results

For Tim's birthday, his mother brought him and three friends to the local arcade for an evening on fun and games. The boys spent the evening competing with each other for the highest scores on their favorite arcade games, all of them classic older games. Determine the full name of each friend, each friend's favorite arcade game, and the game on which each friend achieved the highest score.

1. Tim's favorite game is not Asteroids. The boy whose last name is Spade scored highest in Tetris. Rick's last name isn't White.
2. The favorite game of the boy who scored highest in Battle Zone was Centipede.
3. Walt's favorite wasn't Space Invaders. Rick's last name wasn't Parker.
4. Tim scored highest in Q-Bert. Sam's favorite was Asteroids.
5. The boy who scored highest in Battle Zone wasn't Rick. The boy whose favorite game was Galaga didn't have a last name of Hunt.
6. Space Invaders was the favorite game of the boy whose last name is White. The boy whose last name is Parker didn't get the high score in Pac-Man.
