

Cooking Class

by Shelly Hazard

July, 2011
Print 'n' Play Text
and Table of Results

A new cooking class, part of the adult education program, started on Monday night at the local high school. Skip, the class teacher and a professional chef, was bubbling over with enthusiasm for his new class and new chance to teach others his love of cooking. He admitted it was the first time he'd tried teaching a formal class but he joked that he had lots of on-the-job experience training the kitchen staff at his restaurant. The first night was just an introduction to the class, what he hoped to cover, and a chance for him to get an idea of the skill level of his five students. He was delighted to find out that he had a group of students who already knew their way around a kitchen. So, for the next class, he asked them to bring a couple of their favorite things with them. Determine the full name of each person, one of their favorite seasonings and the favorite recipe each made with that seasoning.

1. The one who loved paprika made delicious vegetable lasagna, but it wasn't Arthur.
2. Stan, whose last name wasn't Night, didn't cook with spearmint.
3. Mr. Bradley loved cooking with cinnamon. Jake, whose last name wasn't Manor, loved to cook with basil but his favorite recipe wasn't grilled swordfish.
4. Paul made hobo potatoes but not using spearmint. Arthur's last name wasn't Night.
5. Frank Jones didn't make grilled swordfish. Stan, whose last name wasn't Manor, made an awesome slow roasted pork loin but not using sage.
6. Mr. Summer, whose first name wasn't Arthur, made a great seasoned chicken but not using sage.

First Name	Last Name	Seasoning	Snack
Arthur
Frank Jake
Paul
Stan

Cooking Class

by Shelly Hazard

July, 2011
Print 'n' Play Grid

	Bradley	Jones	Manor	Night	Summer	basil	cinnamon	sage	paprika	spearmint	grilled swordfish	hobo potatoes	roasted pork	seasoned chicken	vegetable lasagna
Arthur
Frank
Jake
Paul
Stan
grilled swordfish
hobo potatoes roasted pork seasoned chicken vegetable lasagna basil cinnamon sage paprika
spearmint															