

January, 2010

Print 'n' Play Text and Table of Results

A Treat for New Year's Eve

by Shelly Hazard

Five couples decided that their children were old enough to stay up on New Year's Eve to watch the ball fall and celebrate the coming of the new year. The kids were very excited and fully enjoyed the special treat, especially the delayed bedtime! Determine the name and age (11 or 12 years old) of each child, and the names of their parents.

1. Patricia had a daughter but she wasn't married to Bill. Frank wasn't Jack's father.
2. David was Michael's son but his mother wasn't Anne.
3. The two 11-year-olds were Eric's child and Ryan.
4. Robert, whose wife wasn't Heidi, had a son but he wasn't 11 years old.
5. Melissa was 12 years old but she wasn't the child of the couple, Eric and Cindy.
6. One couple, Michael and Sara, didn't have a child named Brenda.

Child's Name	Father's Name	Mother's Name	Child's Age

January, 2010

Print 'n' Play Grid

A Treat for New Year's Eve

by Shelly Hazard

	Bill	Eric	Frank	Michael	Robert	Anne	Cindy	Heidi	Patricia	Sara	12	12	12	11	11
Brenda
David
Jack
Melissa
Ryan 12
12
12
11
11
Anne
Cindy
Heidi
Patricia
Sara															