

Can you draw three squares in such a way that each of the nine dots shown in the illustration is enclosed in only one region?

*This puzzle was inspired to the publication on our site by a message from our visitor K.

The solution is shown in the illustration.