

Write four 1's, three 2's and three 3's in the empty circles so that no three numbers that are beside each other have a sum that is divisible by three.

The solution is shown in the illustration.