

Arrange nine identical coins into the right triangle shown in the illustration.

Change the triangle into a square by moving the minimum of the coins.

How many coins will you need to move to do this?

The two coin solution is shown in the illustration.